Connecting Youth Dance in the South East

The South East Youth Dance Network (SEYDN) connects youth dance providers in the region, encouraging the exchange of ideas, partnerships, collaboration and skills.

The SEYDN is open to all youth dance providers in the south east of England, including those working in venues, education, agencies, local authorities and freelance artists / practitioners.

It is free to join the SEYDN and there are two different ways to get involved...

- 1. Join a Hub: There are four SEYDN hubs across the region. Each hub has its own facilitator who organises quarterly meetings.
- 2. Become an E-Member: If you're interested in the SEYDN but don't want to join a hub, then you can sign up to receive the monthly e-bulletin full of useful information.

SEYDN hub funding

Each hub has access to a small amount of funding to add value to the work of its members. Funding is only available to youth dance providers who are actively involved in the SEYDN hub meetings.
